Negro Fatally Stabbed at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Joe Willie Pope, 28, Negro of Hot Springs, was fatally stabbed in a fight outside a dance hall 12 miles northwest of here Wednesday night.

Deputy Sheriff Freddie Miller said Paul Donson, 25, Negro of Hot Springs, was held in connection with the death.

Miller said Pope's throat was cut and he had knife wounds on the cheek, nose, shoulder and arm.

He was taken to a Hot Springs hospital in a private car, and he died several hours later, Miller said.

Traveler Makes a Stop in Hope

Another traveler legged his way into Hope this morning in the person of Smokey Cameron, 78-year-old Legionnaire from Georgia who left Thomasville on May 8, 1964 carrying a 40-pound pack.

Since leaving as a goodwill ambassador for the Georgia Legionnaire, Smokey has walked to New York City where he "saw all he wanted to see" in exactly one hour. Now he is en route to the National Legion Convention in Dallas. His next stop is Texarkana where he hopes to pick up a "check" that keeps him going.

In his years of walking, Smokey, who says he is the grandson of the Indian Chief Cochise, has pounded out 40,500 miles in the U.S., Canada, Mexico, Central and South America.

He is the 4th such traveler to make Hope in the past few months. Only one other was walking. One was even riding a bull and another a horse.

Magnolia Bldg. in Proposed Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — An $800,000 appropriation for a post office and federal office building at Magnolia is at stake in a bill now being considered by a House-Senate Conference Committee.

The amount was part of $33.2 million added by the Senate to a House-passed bill appropriating funds for new federal buildings.

The House had knocked $29.5 million of this amount from budget recommendations of President Johnson. The Senate restored this amount and added two new projects costing $3.7 million.

Hollywood Seeks New Blood Now Is Time for Young Folks to Storm the Studio Gates

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Young man, if you want to storm the gates of Hollywood, now is your time to march.

"Young people are welcome now, because everybody realizes we must have new blood," said veteran producer-director Fred Zinneman.

"Talent is the thing. If you have talent, you are very much needed. If not, you might as well beat your head against a wall."

There was no welcome mat out for Zinneman, when he came to the film colony from Vienna, Austria, after he abandoned earlier plans to become either a concert violinist or a lawyer.

"When I first set foot in Los Angeles," he recalled, "there was still an obsolete ordinance in effect making it illegal to shoot rabbits from the rear platform of street cars."

"It was very hard to become a director then. Everything was channeled. The big studios weren't taking chances on young people."

"It's completely changed now. There is no central authority, no front office anymore. Everything is more wide open."

Zinneman started as an extra and also worked as a script clerk.

Although he won an Academy Award in 1938 for a film short, it wasn't until he made "The Search" in 1948 that his directorial genius was fully recognized—19 years after he arrived in Hollywood with high hopes and empty pockets.

His hopes are still as high, but his pockets are no longer empty. Today, the slender, grizzled, 57-year-old director is regarded as one of the half-dozen or so master magicians of screen drama—sensitive, poetic,

Four Klansmen Charged With Ga. Murder

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — Four white men identified as members of the Ku Klux Klan were charged with murder today in the slaying of a Washington, D.C., negro educator.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced the arrests Thursday night after an intensive hunt for the slayers of Lemuel Penn, whose car was blasted with shotgun fire July 11 as he drove along a rural northeast Georgia highway.

U.S. Commissioner Girard Hawkins said one of the men, James S. Lackey, 28, a gas station attendant, admitted complicity in the slaying. The others, jailed on charges brought under the Civil Rights Act, were identified by the FBI as Herbert Guest, 37, garage operator; Cecil William Myers, 25, laborer; and Joseph Howard Sims, 41, a machinist. All live in Athens.

State warrants charging murder were filed against the four by H.L. Pulliam a deputy sheriff in adjoining Madison County where the slaying occurred.

FBI agents said their investigation indicated the four men had no reason for killing Penn, Penn, an Army Reserve lieutenant colonel, was en route to Washington with two other Negro officers when their car was fired on.

Floyd Buford, U.S. attorney in Macon, said federal authorities are continuing their investigation of the case and have reached no decision yet on turning the prisoners over to the state for prosecution on murder charges. Conviction for murder could bring the death penalty.

The FBI identified the men as Ku Klux Klansmen. They were held in jail under bonds of $25,000 each after arraignment before Hawkins on charges filed under the new Civil Rights Act.

State authorities looked into the possibility of filing murder charges against Lackey, a gas station attendant; Herbert Guest, 37, a garage operator; Cecil William Myers, a yam-picker and laborer; and Joseph Howard Sims, 41, a machinist, all of Athens.

A deputy sheriff from Madison County appeared at the Clarke County jail here with murder warrants, but said no information on the warrants would be disclosed immediately.

This Area Is Hardest Hit by the Heat

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The south central states continued to broil today in the worst heat wave in 10 years.

The only relief promised by the Weather Bureau was in the form of approaching widely scattered showers.

Hardest hit by the searing, lingering heat were Oklahoma, southern Kansas, Arkansas, Texas and Northwestern Louisiana.

A reading of 113 degrees Thursday at Wichita Falls, Tex., was the highest temperature ever recorded there.

Early morning readings today ranged from the 40s in the northern Appalachians to the 90s in northwestern Texas, Oklahoma and scattered areas of the Southwest.

Philadelphia record 94, setting a record low for the date. The previous mark of 55 was set in 1957.

A violent thunderstorm swept through the San Antonio, Tex., area Thursday night with winds up to 81 miles an hour. But, the heaviest rain fell in southeastern Colorado where Pueblo recorded more than one-half inch.

Elsewhere a few thunderstorms fell along the Gulf Coast, north into the central Plains and across the Western mountains.

More Evidence in Assassination

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A chunk of Dallas street curbing has joined other evidence assembled by the Warren Commission during its investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy.

While FBI agents watched Wednesday, city workers used water-cooled saws to remove a section of Main Street curbing near the triple underpass.

Investigators speculate that one bullet fired at President Kennedy from the Texas School Book Depository Building passed over his car and struck the curb.

A motorist watching the Kennedy motorcade, told investigators he felt a sting on his face and noticed a chip in the curb.

This celebration marks the beginning of a revival that will continue throughout the week. The Rev. Arlis Downs will be the evangelist and Harold Duke will be in charge of music. The Rev. Chester Daniels is pastor.

Hempstead YAR Chapter to Be Formed

The Hempstead County chapter of the Rocketteller youth organization, Youthful Arkansians for Rocketteller (YAR), will be organized Wednesday, August 12. The meeting will be at the Hope youth center at 7:30 p.m.

A contingent of YAR members from other parts of the state will attend the meeting.

YAR is a non-partisan organization. Additional YAR chapters will be formed on Arkansas college campuses when the fall school term begins.

YAR chapters are sponsoring a statewide beauty contest for girls aged 16 to 24 to select "Miss Future of Arkansas."

The winner of the contest will represent YAR during the gubernatorial race and will travel the state campaigning for Mr. Rockefeller.

Contestants will enter local contests first and then proceed to the state competition to be held in Little Rock on August 22. The state winner will receive a $50 Series E savings bond and will be introduced at a picnic for YAR members, at Winrock Farms Sunday, August 23.

Congress Backs LBJ's Action in Viet Nam

The resolution had the support of Republican as well as Democratic leaders.

Burglars Hit Store on Highway 4

Bramlett's "Wag-A-Sack" drive-in store on Highway 4, near Hope City limits, was entered last night and an undetermined amount of articles taken.

The thief gained entrance by breaking out a window pane. Various items such as milk, candy, jeans, shells and about $5 in pennies were taken. City Police are investigating.

Youths Held for Garage Entry

City Police reported that five minor white youths were taken into custody yesterday and charged with breaking into Steve Bader's garage a couple of times.

Officers said the boys admitted to taking various articles, mostly tools. They were released in custody of their parents and will be taken before juvenile court.

Suit Aimed at Speeding Integration

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A lawsuit aimed at speeding up integration of Fort Smith public schools goes to trial in U.S. District Court here Monday.

Mrs. Cornia Rogers, a Negro, filed the suit for her daughters, Janice and Patricia.

She charged that the school board and school officials have not offered equal opportunities and privileges for all children in Fort Smith's public schools.

The suit, filed Sept. 12, 1963, was set for trial by Judge John E. Miller last Nov. 21. But it was postponed because the Federal Building in which the courtroom is located was being remodeled.

In a hearing June 18, Miller, approved a request from the school board that it be allowed to file a revised plan of integration before the suit was heard.

The old plan called for desegregation of classes progressively, one grade a year, starting with the first grade in 1957.

The eighth grade was scheduled to be desegregated at the beginning of the 1964 school year.

Mrs. Rogers' daughters both are in upper grades and wanted immediate transfer to white schools.

The school board filed its revised plan July 17. In it, a voluntary transfer plan was dropped. Miller had ordered it eliminated because of a U.S. Supreme Court ruling that it was unconstitutional.

It provided for transfer of a student from one school district to another upon the student's request.

Viet Nam Crisis Eases With No Attack by Reds

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Premier Nguyen Khanh decreed a state of emergency today and ordered general mobilization of manpower and resources with a declaration that "the coming weeks will be decisive" in South Viet Nam's struggle against the Communists.

Military courts were empowered in this offshoot of the Tonkin Gulf crisis to impose summary death sentences on all terrorists, saboteurs and black-market speculators, with no right of appeal.

A tense night passed quietly on the northern frontier and American advisers with the Vietnamese 1st Division in that danger zone said they doubted that the Communist North Vietnamese would attempt an invasion.

"If they had moved in anger, they would have hit us one way or another by now," said Maj. William McMullen of Long Island, N.Y.

But reinforced defense units kept up a sharp watch all along the 50-mile border, which cuts across inland mountains to Laos from a swampy plain on the South China Sea. Tanks, artillery and camouflaged riflemen stood guard around U.S. reconnaissance jets sped constantly overhead.

Across the way, North Vietnamese regulars presumably kept a similar watch. At North Viet Nam's front-line posts, visible from 1st Division positions, people could be seen moving about freely.

Behind the Red lines, the Hanoi regime pursued a word-war against the United States and South Viet Nam.

Radio Hanoi attributed to the Viet Cong command in South Viet Nam a broadcast statement calling for intensified guerrilla action.

North Viet Nam's cabinet, without mentioning the damage incurred in American retaliatory strikes against North Vietnamese PT boats and bases Wednesday, said, "All provocations and aggressions against the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam will certainly be defeated by the strength of the entire Vietnamese people."

Intelligence sources in Hong Kong and Formosa offered different ideas about Red China's activity in the crisis.

Nationalist Chinese military sources on Formosa said Peking sent nearly 100 Soviet-built MIG fighters to Hanoi Thursday to reinforce North Viet Nam's air force.

The sources said their information came from intelligence dispatches. American military intelligence sources in Hong Kong said there was nothing to substantiate the report.

From Honolulu came reports that more than 100 U.S. jets swept aloft from Hickam Air Force base Thursday, heading toward undisclosed bases in Asia.

Thursday afternoon, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara called a news conference.

Gambling at Spa Blamed on Wealthy

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus blamed the recent illegal gambling operations in Hot Springs on the wealthy in a speech here Thursday.

"If it were not for all the wealthy people in this country who need some place to spend all their money, there would be no need for such places as Hot Springs," Faubus said.

Winthrop Rockefeller, the Republican candidate for governor, said here Wednesday that he was "amazed to find that it took Faubus nine years, seven months and 72 hours to discover there was something illegal going on in Hot Springs."

Faubus' remark about the wealthy being responsible for gambling was apparently a retort to Rockefeller's statement. The governor spoke to industrial leaders from 41 states and Puerto Rico at the National State Manufacturers Association. About 75 delegates attended.

Faubus confined most of his speech to recollections of his military service in Europe during World War II, but he continued his criticism of the U.S. Supreme Court, which he calls the U.S. Supreme School Board.

He said that as long as he had been governor of Arkansas there had been no race riots in Arkansas like those in Rochester, Harlem and Jersey City.

"There never will be as long as I am governor," he said. The crowd applauded.

Viet Nam Calls National State of Emergency

By BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Vietnamese border crisis appeared to ease today as another night passed without a Red attack from the north. But there were continuing reports of U.S. and Red Chinese buildups in the explosive Southeast Asia.

And although the only Peking response to the U.S. air strikes against North Vietnamese PT boat fleet has been a torrent of flaming words, President Johnson — as the rest of Washington officialdom — had his fingers crossed.

Government forces and their American advisers along South Viet Nam's heavily reinforced northern frontier were reported in dispatches today to have been anticipating a massive Red attack in reprisal. But U.S. operations officers said only "routine" fighting was reported throughout South Viet Nam.

The South Vietnamese forces remained on full alert near the frontier but American advisers with the government's first division at Gia Linh expressed doubt the North Vietnamese would launch an attack.

"If they had moved in anger, they would have hit us one way or another by now," said Maj. William McMullen of Long Island, N.Y., a senior American adviser with the division.

Hanoi, North Viet Nam's capital, was reported by a Japanese businessman to be "very quiet."

Nationalist Chinese military sources in Taipei, Formosa, said today that Red China sent nearly 100 Soviet-built MIG fighters to Hanoi Thursday to reinforce North Viet Nam's air force.

The sources said their information came from intelligence dispatches. American military intelligence sources in Hong Kong said there was nothing to substantiate the report.

From Honolulu came reports that more than 100 U.S. jets swept aloft from Hickam Air Force base Thursday, heading toward undisclosed bases in Asia.

Thursday afternoon, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara called a news conference.

Arkansas Oil Continues a Vital Factor

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer
EL DORADO, Ark. (AP)—The Arkansas oil industry may not be as publicly conscious as the forestry and poultry industries, but it remains a vital factor in the state's bustling economy.

There is no Arkansas Oil Festival, no public relations office grinding out daily releases about the glamor of the business.

But each day hundreds of production workers turn to the grueling, dirty job of drilling for new oil, pumping and transporting that which has been found and eliminating the salt water wastes which once polluted the streams of south Arkansas.

Arkansas produces about 73,000 barrels of oil worth an estimated $184,000 each day, 365 days a year. It has been the life blood of south central Arkansas since the first discovery in the 1920s created a boom in the El Dorado-Smackover area that has lasted to this day.

Huge refineries at El Dorado, Smackover, Stephens and Waterloo — six of them in all—serve the industry and provide hundreds of high-paying jobs.

The Arkansas Oil and Gas Commission estimates that about 20 oil drilling rigs are operating in the state at all times. Drilling activity in the first five months of this year was down 16.9 per cent from the same period last year, but the rate of discovery of new fields was up.

The commission issued 118 drilling permits during the period, compared to 142 last year. Three new fields and nine new productive pools were discovered this year, compared to two fields and five pools in the same period last year.

Production of natural gas — the one-time oil industry by-product which has become an industry itself — was up from 108 million cubic feet to 110 million cubic feet a day.

Oil production in Arkansas remains confined to the El Dorado area and southwest Arkansas, but the natural gas industry has branched out into the Arkansas River Valley.

Edward Albarez, director of the Arkansas Oil and Gas Commission, said the "dry" fields — fields with the gas but no oil — in the Arkansas valley are common in the mid-continent area.

Most oil wells are not gushers. One of the new discoveries this year produces 32 barrels a day. But at the going rate of $2.50 per barrel, the well represents a steady, solid income for the person or firm which owns it.

Producing wells must be checked daily, Albarez said, although the oil may not be picked up by tank trucks but once a week or — in the case of a small producer — once a month.

"The checker has to make

Bennett Says Coffelt Aided by NAACP

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett said Wednesday that the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was behind Kenneth Coffelt's attempt to run as an independent against Bennett.

Coffelt, a Little Rock attorney, laughed and called Bennett's assertion ridiculous.

A hearing was scheduled for late today on a suit filed by Coffelt to test a ruling by Bennett that an independent candidate must have signatures from 46,214 qualified Arkansas voters before he can get on the state ballot.

He asked that he be certified by Secretary of State Kelly Bryant, but Bryant, acting on the basis of Bennett's ruling, would not certify Coffelt as a candidate.

Bennett said the J.C. Crenshaw, Chris C. Mercer and Harold B. Anderson signed Coffelt's petitions. The attorney general said they are active in NAACP work.

Coffelt said some Negroes had signed the petition, but he added that the other 72 names included leaders in labor, business and the professions.

Bennett said the suit is designed to embarrass him and other officials.

"I can see why Mr. Coffelt sees the task of getting 46,000 signatures insurmountable in light of the fact that he got only 5,200 votes when he ran for governor in 1962," Bennett said.

"I am surprised that Mr. Bennett is getting frantic so early in the game," Coffelt said.

sure that the pumping mechanism is functioning properly and that the tanks are holding the oil," Albarez said.

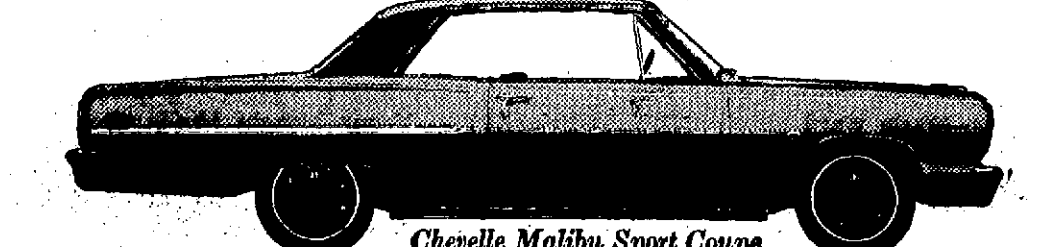

A great deal of the oil produced in Arkansas is processed in the state. El Dorado's economy was for many years inextricably linked to oil production and processing. In recent years the city has developed a diversified industry, but it still leans heavily on oil.

face a mass of mosquito bites. Joe's favorite chicks refused to spend any time in his mosquito haven. A bottle-buddy suggested he stock the pool with fish.

Fish would not only eat the mosquito larvae but they would ment for Joe and his guests who would catch them and eat them. It would sort of turn the tables on those mosquitos.

Joe was not the kind of man who goes in for every suggestion made by well-wishing friends but after some argument he was convinced that it was worth a try. After all the fish wouldn't bother him and even if they didn't eat the mosquitos they could be caught.

Full of cynical doubt Joe purchased a few baby fish and they came on strong and fat lunching on mosquito eggs. Joe was delighted once more for again he had kayoted the challenge and the pesky mosquitos were gone.

Joe slept and rested grew fat himself during the following months plus any number of babes returned to put their hand in at decorating his pad.

One Sunday afternoon a friend staggered out of Joe's rumpus room. Reaching the pool he screamed "Man what plump old fish we have here! Hey Joe you got yourself a fisherman's paradise."

Joe and his pals caught the fishing fever frying the fat fish on the outdoor barbecue pit last as they hooked them. It was a new trick. They fished like crazy and within a week they had eaten every fish even the smallest in the pool.

Any conservationist would have told Joe that he had made a mistake. There are natural balances which have to be maintained. As long as the fish were in the pool doing their job the least Joe could have done would have been to grant a few of them a parole from the hook and frying pan. But Joe was not the kind of man who thought things out. And when he upset the balance Nature punished him.

For the next few weeks things were okay. Joe was now on a ping-pong jag. Unfortunately a passing and sick mosquito reached the pool dropped its eggs. The wretched mosquito was dying because he was full of hungry and tiny virus. Since there were no fish to eat the eggs the virus grew strong enough to explore the area. Some of them found their way into Joe Blow's fat tummy. A flash fever took poor Joe from his split-level world.

Joe was just as extinct as the fish that could have saved his life.

face a mass of mosquito bites. Joe's favorite chicks refused to spend any time in his mosquito haven. A bottle-buddy suggested he stock the pool with fish.

Fish would not only eat the mosquito larvae but they would ment for Joe and his guests who would catch them and eat them. It would sort of turn the tables on those mosquitos.

Joe was not the kind of man who goes in for every suggestion made by well-wishing friends but after some argument he was convinced that it was worth a try. After all the fish wouldn't bother him and even if they didn't eat the mosquitos they could be caught.

Full of cynical doubt Joe purchased a few baby fish and they came on strong and fat lunching on mosquito eggs. Joe was delighted once more for again he had kayoted the challenge and the pesky mosquitos were gone.

Joe slept and rested grew fat himself during the following months plus any number of babes returned to put their hand in at decorating his pad.

One Sunday afternoon a friend staggered out of Joe's rumpus room. Reaching the pool he screamed "Man what plump old fish we have here! Hey Joe you got yourself a fisherman's paradise."

Joe and his pals caught the fishing fever frying the fat fish on the outdoor barbecue pit last as they hooked them. It was a new trick. They fished like crazy and within a week they had eaten every fish even the smallest in the pool.

Any conservationist would have told Joe that he had made a mistake. There are natural balances which have to be maintained. As long as the fish were in the pool doing their job the least Joe could have done would have been to grant a few of them a parole from the hook and frying pan. But Joe was not the kind of man who thought things out. And when he upset the balance Nature punished him.

For the next few weeks things were okay. Joe was now on a ping-pong jag. Unfortunately a passing and sick mosquito reached the pool dropped its eggs. The wretched mosquito was dying because he was full of hungry and tiny virus. Since there were no fish to eat the eggs the virus grew strong enough to explore the area. Some of them found their way into Joe Blow's fat tummy. A flash fever took poor Joe from his split-level world.

Joe was just as extinct as the fish that could have saved his life.

The house soon carried a rep

Berra's Dusty Bat Act Works for Yankees

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The biggest two weeks of the year in the American League start today, and the New York Yankees got ready for them by leaving their bats in the rack.

That should be bad news for the Baltimore Orioles and the Chicago White Sox.

The last time the Yankees did that they won five straight.

And this time they pulled out the finale of a three-game set in Kansas City, 5-3, by using the dusty bat act that was dreamed up by Manager Yogi Berra as a slump-killer.

The victory put the Yankees four percentage points ahead of the Orioles, with the big series coming up between the two clubs at Yankee Stadium to-night.

The third-place White Sox dropped 1½ games back, when they dropped a 5-2 decision to the Detroit Tigers. The Minnesota Twins edged the Boston Red Sox 6-5 on a fly ball that was lost in the sun, in the other game.

The Orioles were idle, along with the Senators, Angels and Indians.

In the National League, Houston edged first-place Philadelphia 2-1, Cincinnati walloped Milwaukee 9-3, Pittsburgh beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1 and St. Louis downed the Chicago Cubs 5-3.

The Yankees snapped out of their slump in Kansas City by using Yogi's recipe for weak hitting — not batting practice. It was the second time this year that Berra had ordered his team to skip batting drill, and the second time they responded.

The same kind of response would come in handy in the next two weeks — which are being billed as pennant weeks. The Yankees meet the second-place Orioles for four games at home, and then the White Sox come in for four.

Then the Yanks go to Baltimore for three and Chicago for four.

That will wind up the season's business for the Yankees with the competitors. They will not see either team again.

The Yanks are 5-6 against the Orioles, and 10-0 against the White Sox, going into the big fortnight, but they are not certain at this stage if their ace, Whitey Ford, can be counted on for regular work. He has an ailing hip.

That made the continued rehabilitation of onetime ace Ralph Terry good news for the Yanks. Terry got the victory, his third in a row, against the Athletics, although he needed help when the home run ball started to catch up to him again.

Nellie Mathews homered in the fifth and Rocky Colavito hit his 27th, a two-run shot, in the eighth, against Terry.

Roger Maris got the Yanks off in front with a homer in the fifth, and Tommy Tresh hit a two-run triple in the seventh. Elston Howard's wrong field homer in the eighth proved to be the winning run.

Mickey Lolich pitched seven innings and got the victory for the Tigers over the White Sox. Al Kaline started the two-run fifth inning off with a double and hit a solo homer in the seventh for the Tigers. An error helped the Tigers to their first two runs in the third.

Harmon Killebrew's 39th homer of the season, a two-run shot in the third, gave the Twins a 5-4 lead that held up until the seventh, when the Red Sox tied it up. Bob Tillman's sacrifice fly got the tying run home.

In the Minnesota half of the inning, Rich Rollins hit a fly to right field that Lee Thomas lost in the sun. It dropped for a triple and drove home Zoilo Versalles with the winning run.

American Leads in Regatta

ROCKPORT, Mass. (AP) — Dave Rodenkirk of Milwaukee took a one point lead Thursday after the first round of racing in the Flying Scot sixth national championship regatta.

Hope Legion Slated for Game Today

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — Favorite West Memphis took an edge in the American Legion state baseball tournament here Thursday when Ronnie Driver cracked a 350-foot home run in the 10th inning to down Fort Smith Kerwin's 2-1.

That knocked Kerwin's into the losers bracket and brought West Memphis past one of its toughest tournament hurdles.

In other game, Little Rock dropped Morrilton into the losers bracket 4-2. Fort Smith Vehicle eliminated Walnut Ridge from the double-elimination tourney 6-2 and El Dorado, though leading 13-1, had to forfeit to Hope because it ran out of players.

West Memphis scored a run in the sixth inning on an error and Andy Coleman's single, which scored Grafton Moore.

Kerwin's tied the score in the top of the ninth after Danny Cross socked a home run—also about 350 feet—over the center-field fence. Then driver connected against loser Alan Johnson, who had give up seven hits and fanned 11 West Memphis batters.

Sidney Davis became ill during the El Dorado-Hope game and had to stop playing. El Dorado, which normally has a 14-player squad, had started the game with only nine, because others were ill, had jobs or were practicing in Little Rock for the Arkansas High School All-Star football games.

Randy Henry homered and singled in the eighth inning as El Dorado ruled up eight runs. The forfeit knocked El Dorado out of the tournament.

Fort Smith Vehicle rapped 13 hits, including Lowell Mask's triple with two men on base, to down Walnut Ridge. David McSpadden gave up five hits and struck out 14 batters to get the triumph.

Three walks, an error and Gene Hantel's single got Little Rock two runs in the third inning, and got another unearned run in the seventh.

Phil Burnett singled in the ninth and scored on a double by Barry Boshears.

Singles by Sammy Hughes, Ronnie Hoyt, Herbert Paladino and losing pitcher Pat Roberts got Morrilton's runs in the fifth.

Today's schedule matches Little Rock and West Memphis, Morrilton and Fort Smith Vehicle, Fort Smith Kerwin's and Hope.

The tournament winner goes to the regional tournament at Memphis Aug. 24-30. The American Legion World Series will be played at Little Rock in September.

Stephens in Victory Over Hope

Last night at K Park Stephens upset the Century Bible Class team of Hope behind the hurling of Everett. Putman took the loss. Moses homered for the winners. Purdie, Putman and McBay each got a hit for CBC.

In the second game of the night the Lavender Cowboys of Texarkana eliminated Murfreesboro 31 to 7.

Tonight's action will be semi-final games pairing Liberty Eylau of Texarkana against Stephens at 6 p.m. The Jennings Hawks and the Lavender Cowboys, both of Texarkana, meet at 8 o'clock. The title game is Saturday.

Houston Takes Phils; Cards, Pirates Win

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dick Farrell of the Houston Colts, the first pitcher to win 10 games this year and who threatened to be the last to win 11, has ended a seven-week famine.

The hard-throwing right-hander defeated the National League-leading Philadelphia Phillies Thursday night, 2-1.

"I couldn't help wondering if it would ever come," Farrell said. There were 11 tries and six losses between victory No. 10 and 11.

Farrell, who had a brilliant 10-1 record on June 14, said he didn't think he was pressing at any time and hadn't thought about a 20-victory season.

Farrell has an 11-7 record now that the famine's ended, and has an outside chance to win 20. But he'd have to reel off the victories as quickly as he did the first 10.

Farrell's victory trimmed the Phillies' edge to 1½ games over the second-place San Francisco Giants, who were not scheduled.

Third-place Cincinnati walloped Milwaukee 9-3 with a 15-hit attack and closed to within four games of the top, Pittsburgh defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-1 and St. Louis downed the Chicago Cubs 5-3.

In the American League, the New York Yankees whipped Kansas City 5-3, Detroit belted the Chicago White Sox 5-2 and Minnesota edged Boston 6-5. Farrell allowed only four hits before he was relieved in the ninth after Wes Covington doubled. Gus Triandos' single produced a run and brought in Jim Owens, who finally nailed Farrell's 11th by getting Tony Taylor to hit into a game-ending doubleplay. The Colts scored their runs in the fourth against Chris Short, 10-6, on a triple by Al Spangler, Nellie Fox' double, a single by Walt Bond and Bob Aspromonte's sacrifice fly. Deron Johnson and Frank Robinson produced most of the fireworks for the Reds, each collecting a triple, double and single. Vada Pinson chipped in with a homer and triggered a four-run seventh inning uprising against reliever Warren Spahn with a bunt single. Hank Aaron was the Braves' attack, hitting a three-run homer. Bill Mazerowski drove in three runs with a double and a single for the Pirates while Bob Friend, 10-11, kept nine Dodger hits well scattered. Consecutive triples by Manny Mota and Donn Clendenon in the fifth produced the other Pittsburgh run. Tommy Davis, the defending batting champion, stroked three singles for the Dodgers, extended his hitting streak to 18 games and lifted his average to .281. Bill White doubled home two runs and Dick Groat drove in a pair with two singles for the Cardinals. Bob Gibson went 8 2/3 innings but came out in the ninth. The Cubs scored one run and loaded the bases but Barney Schultz struck out Ernie Banks to end it. The victory, squaring Gibson's record at 9-9, was his first since July 19.

Crisis Lacks Explosive of Cuban Issue

By LEWIS GULICK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's most serious international crisis so far lacks the quick explosive potential of President Kennedy's Cuban missile showdown, but Southeast Asia could still cause big trouble in the long run.

This is the opinion of administration insiders who worked both with the late president during the 1962 missile confrontation and with Johnson in the decision to strike back at North Viet Nam's navy.

As Secretary of State Dean Rusk figures it, the Cuba affair saw the world's two great nuclear powers — the United States and the Soviet Union — on collision course. A push of the button then could have plunged the northern hemisphere into a nuclear holocaust. In Viet Nam shots have been fired, but not atomic ones. Hanoi and Peking don't hold a nuclear trigger. And that, says Rusk, makes today's difficulty less of an immediate danger and incomparable "in any significant way to the Cuban missile crisis."

So far, so good. But what will happen later is loaded with uncertainty.

The U.S. counterattack was avowedly geared to keeping the fighting limited. Whether it spreads into a bigger war, say U.S. strategists, is up to the Reds — and they admittedly don't know just what the Communists will decide to do beyond firing a propaganda barrage and making threats.

Will Red China march into Southeast Asia in a massive way? Will the Soviets patch up their split with Peking enough to form a tough united front? The prevailing theory here has been that the Soviet Union will not rush support to the distant Southeast Asian land where influence has been losing out to Peking.

Red China has been the more militant backer of North Viet Nam's aggressions. However,

China appears not to have effective military means of replying to the U.S. counterthrust short of a large scale land invasion to the South. That would mean a big war at a tremendous price to her.

Washington hopes the Communist response will be to move more cautiously on the military front. Even with that the South Viet Nam campaign still looms long and costly.

The most dangerous span of the Cuban missile crisis lasted about two weeks. The Southeast Asia danger has lurked for years and even the optimists predict it will be many months before it is licked.

James Marlow, who usually writes this column, is on vacation.

Annual Pro, All Star Game Friday

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Will Miami's George Mira be able to play for Coast Guard's Otto Graham in the College All-Star game against the Bears in Chicago?

Ask the San Francisco 49ers. Which is kind of confusing until you consider that it's time for pro football's pre-season exhibitions, when all sorts of strange things happen.

Like Sam Huff, playing for Washington in Charlotte, N.C., where his teammate is the presently disabled Sonny Jurgensen. And Jurgensen's favorite Philadelphia target, Tommy McDonald, is nearly 3,000 miles away playing for Dallas in Los Angeles. And Paul Hornung gets back into action in New Orleans.

Opening up the whole affair, and the highlight of weekend, is the annual game between the College All-Stars against the National Football League champion Bears in Chicago tonight.

And Graham coach at Coast Guard, who will be seeking his second straight All-Star victory, got something of a jolt when Mira, one of the nation's top collegiate passers, came up with a twinge in his throwing arm.

Mira is the property of the 49ers and Graham said it was strictly up to San Francisco as to whether the 1962 All-America choice would be available. In the meantime he named Southern Cal's Pete Beathard to start against the two-touchdown favorite Bears, who have announced they will dedicate the game to Willie Gallimore and John Farrington, Chicago players killed in a recent auto accident.

The rest of the nation's major pro football teams — with the exception of the Pittsburgh Steelers — open their pre-season schedules Saturday and Sunday. The Steelers are idle.

The Saturday night schedule has Green Bay vs. St. Louis at New Orleans, Baltimore vs. Philadelphia at Hershey, Detroit vs. Washington at Charlotte and Dallas at Los Angeles in the NFL, and Denver at San Diego and New York vs. Buffalo at Tampa, Fla., in the AFL.

Sunday Cleveland is at San Francisco in the NFL and Houston at Boston and Kansas City at Oakland in the AFL.

Among the highlights will be the return of Hornung to the Green Bay Packers after sitting out a year's suspension and the appearance of a flock of veterans in brand new livery.

Giant Owners Plan to Keep Alvin Dark

By DEREK SCHOEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—With the knowledge that Alvin Dark will remain their manager, the San Francisco Giants now can turn back to chasing the National League pennant.

Widely circulated reports that Dark was about to get the ax from Giants owner Horace Stoneham were squelched Thursday by Stoneham.

Said Stoneham in a statement: "I want to take this opportunity to deny all reports that a managerial change is contemplated."

That appeared to wipe out the cloud of uncertainty that had surrounded Dark's future since the appearance of a column in Newsday, a Long Island daily.

The columnist, Stan Isaacs, quoted Dark as saying Negro and Latin American players are physically superior but mentally inferior.

Dark called a special press conference before San Francisco's game Tuesday night in New York to deny making these statements plus others attributed to him by Isaacs.

Later on Tuesday, Associated Press sports writer Joe Reichler quoted an unidentified team official as saying Dark would be dismissed, possibly before the team returned home Aug. 14.

Dark called Stoneham's statement "heart-warming" and "above and beyond his duty."

"I really appreciate him doing this . . . he shouldn't have to step in every time a manager is misquoted," said Dark.

So it was back to baseball.

FBI Keeps Up Pressure in Mississippi

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) — The FBI kept up relentless pressure today in an effort to uncover the killers of three civil rights workers.

Agents were busy around the back-country swamp-dotted area southwest of here, where they dug three bodies out of the red clay of a nearby watershed dam Tuesday.

Residents in the dam area were being questioned. Agents also interrogated workers at the truck company operated by Olen Burrage, who owns the farm where the dam is located.

Sheriff Lawrence Rainey and Deputy Cecil Price, who have had several sessions with FBI interrogators, conferred with an investigator for the State Sovereignty Commission — the state's official segregation watchdog.

Price was the last to see the three civil rights workers before they fell into the hands of the killers last June 21.

He arrested them on speeding charges as they were en route to investigate a Negro church burning. He said they were held six hours for investigation, then released on bond at about 11 p.m.

The bodies of Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andrew Goodman, 20, both white New Yorkers, were positively identified.

The body of a Negro found with them was presumably that of James Chaney, 21, of Meridian, Miss., their companion when they were arrested.

outright dissent, but Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., voted "present" when his name was called.

Powell, asked by newsmen to explain his vote, said: "I have always been a pacifist. I have been for 34 years as a minister. But when my country is absolutely in danger as in time of war, then I will support it."

The resolution had the support of Republican as well as Democratic leaders.

"This is one of those occasions when all of us, whatever our political persuasion, unite behind our commander in chief," said Rep. Frances P. Bolton, R-Ohio, ranking Republican on the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Senate action — with overwhelming approval also certain — was expected this afternoon.

A long speech of opposition from Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., delayed action.

House discussion of the resolution was brief with the majority of the speakers, both Republicans and Democrats, expressing firm support for it.

There were exceptions.

Rep. Ed Foreman, R - Tex., drew boos and groans of disapproval from the Democratic side when he said: "We've heard an awful lot in the last few weeks about trigger-happy irresponsibility. I say, 'What is this?'"

Foreman referred to a news report that President Johnson had announced the air strike in North Viet Nam on nationwide television an hour and a half before the raid actually occurred.

"What kind of responsibility is this?" Foreman shouted. "The parents and wives of the boys who were killed in those strikes are going to be asking."

The Pentagon has denied that the North Vietnamese made any preparation for air raids on their torpedo-boat installations.

In the Senate, Morse was given two hours of time for his protests.

Congress Backs

said the PT boat attacks meant that "our national honor is at stake and we can't shrink from defending it."

In Thursday's debate, speaker after speaker underscored the gravity of the situation and the import of the resolution.

"We hope for the best," said Mansfield. "But let us also be prepared for the worst. The situation may well become more critical — far more critical — before its resolution becomes visible."

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress voted overwhelming approval today of the resolution backing President Johnson's actions in the Southeast Asian crisis.

First the House, on a 414-0 roll call, and then the Senate adopted the resolution in a display to the world of bipartisan unity behind Johnson's firm military response to attacks by Communist North Vietnamese on U.S. warships.

In the Senate, there were protests against the resolution from Sens. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska.

Morse said it was giving Johnson "blanket authority to wage war." Gruening argued, as did Morse, that "All Viet Nam is not worth the life of a single American boy."

In the House, there was no

Four Klansmen

Both Gov. Carl Sanders and Solicitor General (prosecutor) Clete Johnson, whose judicial circuit includes Madison County where Penn was slain, promised state court action if they determined the men were responsible.

"The state most certainly will prosecute the murder charge very vigorously if the evidence is there," said Johnson. He said he first would have to determine what evidence the FBI has.

The federal charge against the men carries a maximum penalty of a $3,000 fine and 10 years imprisonment while a first-degree murder charge filed under state laws can carry the

Typhoon Hits Philippines

MANILA, Philippines (AP)—Typhoon Ida roared through Luzon Island's northern provinces today with winds of more than 90 miles an hour and headed into the South China Sea.

Damage was expected to be considerable, but early reports were sketchy.

Although far from the storm's center, Manila had heavy rains which caused some flooding. Winds sent waves crashing over Manila Bay's sea wall. Some people living along the shoreline were forced to leave their homes.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover announced the arrests in Washington climaxing an intensive three-week hunt for the slayers.

Pictures Size Has No Significance

Don't attempt to read any significance into the varying size or the arrangement of these entries in Hope Star's $100 Vacation Picture Contest, which runs through Labor Day.

Mechanical problems make some pictures larger than others, due to the dimensions of the original photos. Our Fairchild electronic engraver can make only two stages of enlargements, 1.7 and 2.2, and some photo copy won't take the full 2.2 enlarging without cropping out the feature of the picture.

As for arrangement on the page — the pictures are fitted together like a cut-out puzzle — they won't go any other way — THE EDITOR.

Faubus to Shun Nat'l Convention

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus, saying he is too busy, withdrew Wednesday along with two others as a delegate to the Democratic National convention.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills of Kentucky and state Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs also withdrew.

Insurance Commissioner Harvey Combs, Lloyd Godley of Little Rock and Jay Smith of Little Rock were named replacements.

Faubus had said earlier that he probably would not attend the convention, which begins Aug. 24 in Atlantic City, N.J.

A national debt of $10 million was incurred under the Articles of Confederation.

U.S. Air Force and naval bases on Luzon reported no storm damage.
